Privacy Policy

The PA Hub is a privacy conscious organisation and this Privacy Statement explains how The PA Hub protect visitors' information gathered via this Website.

By using this Website you are agreeing to the use of your information as described in this Privacy Statement.

Other websites that may be linked to this Website, are not governed by this Privacy Statement. We encourage visitors to review each of these other websites' privacy statements before disclosing any personal information.

This Privacy Statement may be supplemented or amended from time to time by privacy statements that are specific to certain areas of this Website. Please review the specific statement governing that area.

If you have any questions regarding this Privacy Statement, please contact The PA Hub

Information collection

As a visitor, you do not have to submit any personal information in order to use the Website. This Website only collects personal information that is specifically and voluntarily provided by visitors for the purposes of contacting The PA Hub to discuss provision of services. Such information may consist of, but is not limited to, your name, business name, website URL, email address and telephone numbers.

The PA Hub may also store and maintain any content that you provide, including but not limited to postings on any blogs, forums, wikis and other social media applications and services that it may provide.

The PA Hub will not usually seek sensitive information (e.g., data relating to race or ethnic origin, religious beliefs, criminal record, physical or mental health, or sexual orientation) from visitors. Where necessary to collect such information, The PA Hub will obtain your explicit consent to collect and use such information.

Log information, cookies, and web beacons

This site collects standard internet log information including your IP address, browser type and language, access times and referring website addresses. To ensure that this Website is well managed and to facilitate improved navigation, we or our service providers may also use cookies (small text files stored in a user's browser) or Web beacons (electronic images that allow this Website to count visitors who have accessed a particular page and to access certain cookies) to collect aggregate data.

Information use

At times, you may provide personal information via this site, for example, to gain access to specific content, attend a hosted event, respond to a survey, or request communications about specific areas of interest. In such cases, the information you submit will be used to manage your request and to customise and improve this Website and related services offered to you. The PA Hub may also use your personal information for marketing purposes, or to send you promotional materials or communications regarding services provided by The PA Hub that may be of interest to you. The PA Hub may also contact you to seek feedback on services provided or for market or other research purposes.

Your personal information may also be used to protect our rights or property and that of our users and, where appropriate, to comply with legal process.

You may at any time request that we discontinue sending you emails or other communications generated in response to your provision of personal information via this Website.

By providing information through this Website, you are consenting to the disclosures described above.

Blogs, forums, wikis, and other social media

This Website may host various blogs, forums, wikis and other social media applications or services that allow you to share content with other users (collectively “Social Media Applications”). Any personal information or other information that you contribute to any Social Media Application can be read, collected, and used by other users of that Social Media Application over whom we have little or no control. Therefore, we are not responsible for any other user’s use, misuse, or misappropriation of any personal information or other information that you contribute to any Social Media Application.

Access to information

Visitors who would like to request access to their information, to update their details, or unsubscribe from communications should contact The PA Hub. In all cases The PA Hub will treat requests to access information or change information in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Information security

The PA Hub has in place reasonable commercial standards of technology and operational security to protect all information provided by visitors via this Website from unauthorised access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction.

Changes to our Privacy Statement

The PA Hub may modify or amend this Privacy Statement from time to time at our discretion. When changes are made to this Statement, The PA Hub will amend the revision date at the top of this page, and such modified or amended Privacy Statement shall be effective as to you and your information as of that revision date. We encourage you to periodically review this Privacy Statement to be informed about how The PA Hub is protecting your information.

Children's privacy protection

We understand the importance of protecting children's privacy in the interactive online world. This Website is not designed for or intentionally targeted at children 13 years of age or younger. It is not The PA Hub policy to intentionally collect or maintain information about anyone under the age of 13.

Visitors' questions

If you have any questions or concerns regarding your privacy while using this Website, please contact The PA Hub.
